It will be followed tonight by a magnificent inaugural reception and banquet at the Auditorium where the most distinguished orators, statesmen, historians, divines and leaders of opinion will be present.

The first event was the celebration of Columbus day by the school children. A committee representing the state and city superintendents had arranged a programme for celebration in the public schools and the children executed this rder of exercises with a vim. When the schools opened, the rooms in which the exercises were to take place were all decorated in a way appropriate to the oc-Dividing attention during the day with Chicago has never before seen such a crowd, and the city was never so profuses ly decorated. The city is gay with countless banners, fluttering a hearty welcome to the thousands of strangers. All flags were unfurled. Nearly all are festooned with rosettes and shields in place, and Columbus was smiling down on the people in the streets from thousands of nooks and corners. Thus far not an accident has occurred to mar the historic pageant.

Alix Captures the Great Special Stake with Ease-Grey Gown Wins the Pim-Hee Cup-The Runners at Morris Park All Kinds of Sports Under One Head. Maher and Goddard Will Meet.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15,-It will take six days to finish the races arranged for the four days' fall meeting at the Philadelphia Driving park. Today the first division of the 2.27 trot will be finished and the 2.33 pace decided. The 2.27 trotting class was divided because of the large number of entries and two purses were offered. The first division was carried over after Kitty Frazier, the favorite, had won two heats and Florilla The second division was won in straight heats by Altogether.

There was considerable jockeying in the unfinished 2.24 class, four heats of which were trotted Thursday. It was evident that a scheme was on foot to have Archies B win, for several of the other drivers tried to rocket J. M. Pettit, the driver of Monroe Wilkes, the favorite, This was so palpable in the sixth heat, when Ruby, driven by Jesse Yearrance, managed to win after running nearly a quarter of a mile, J. Reamer, the driver of Colonel Walker, and J. Carpenter, the driver of Archie B, crowding Pettit to the rail, that the judges delared it no heat and fined Yearrance $50 and suspended him until the payment of the fine. Reamer's pun-ishment was the declaring of Colonel

Walker to be distanced.
In the 2.15 pace, unfinished from Thursday, Saladin won the sixth heat in 2.141, reducing his record three-fourths of a second. Rebus won the seventh heat and the race. Gordon was the favorite in the second division of the 2.27 trot, but finished last in the first heat and was badly dis-tanced in the second. The judges suspected a job and waived the distance. Upon examination a nail in the shoe on the off front foot was found bent, thus laming the animal. The judges sent the horse to the association's stable and the third heat J. W. Metcalf drove him, but he was again distanced and the judges' suspicions were found to be unfounded. Summary:

Or the Liquor Habit, Positively Cured, by administering Dr. Haines' Golden Epecific.

It is manufactured as a powder, which can be given in a glass of beer, a cny of cuffes or tea, or in food, without the knowledge of the patient. It is absolutely harmless, and will affect a permacent and speedy cure, whether the person is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. It has been given in thousands of cases, and in every instance a perfect cure has followed. It NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific, it becomes an atter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist.
